

Name _____

The Sun is a star that is very big.
Look at the Earth next to the Sun.
Color the Sun yellow.

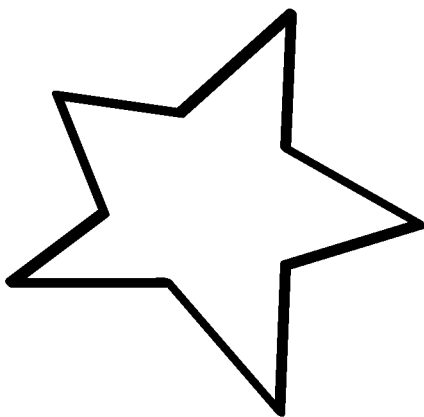

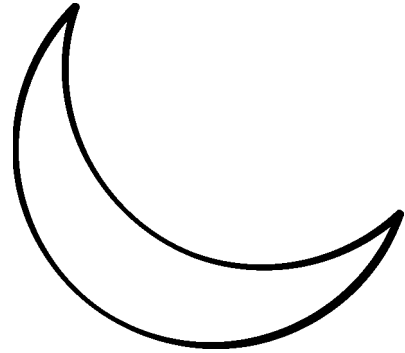

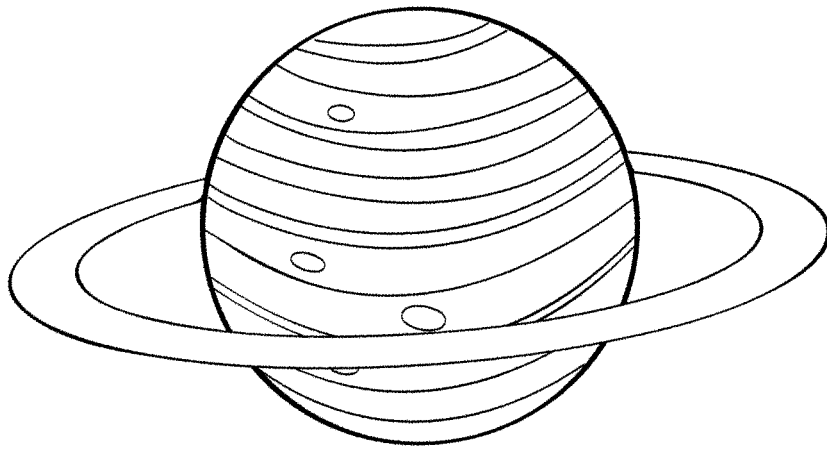

Name _____

Planets have a round shape.

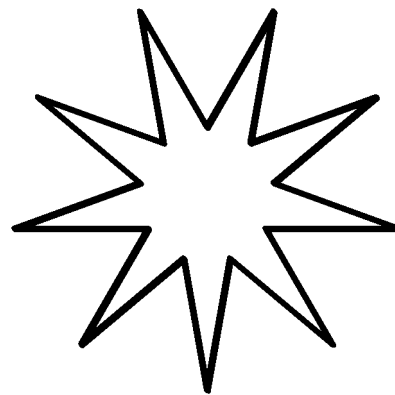

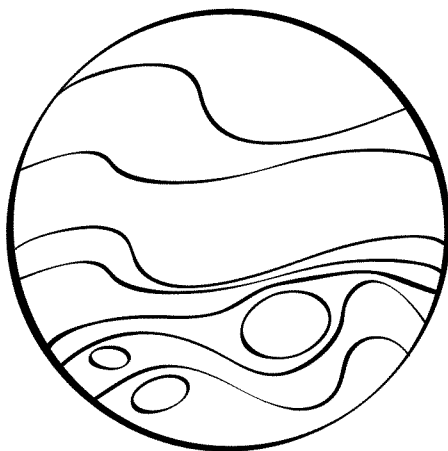

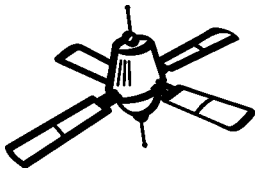

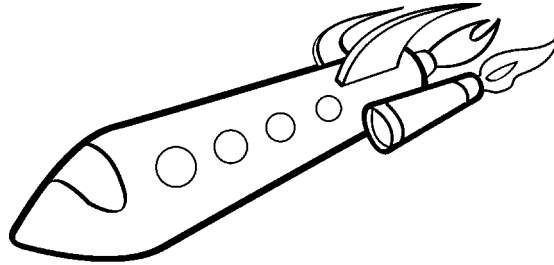

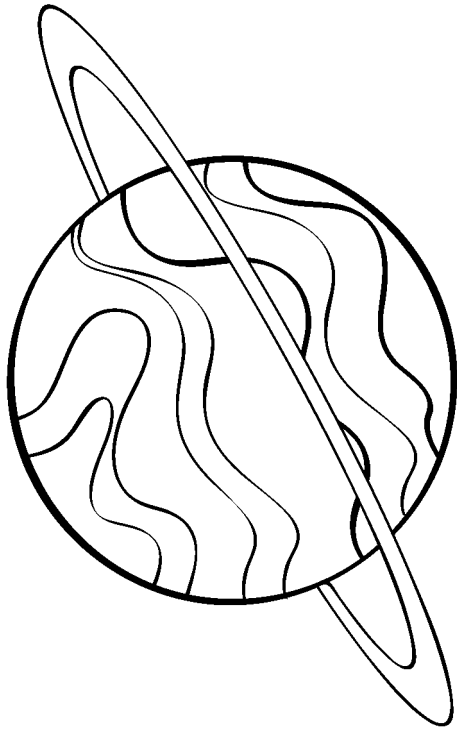

Earth is a planet.

Circle the picture of Earth.

Name _____

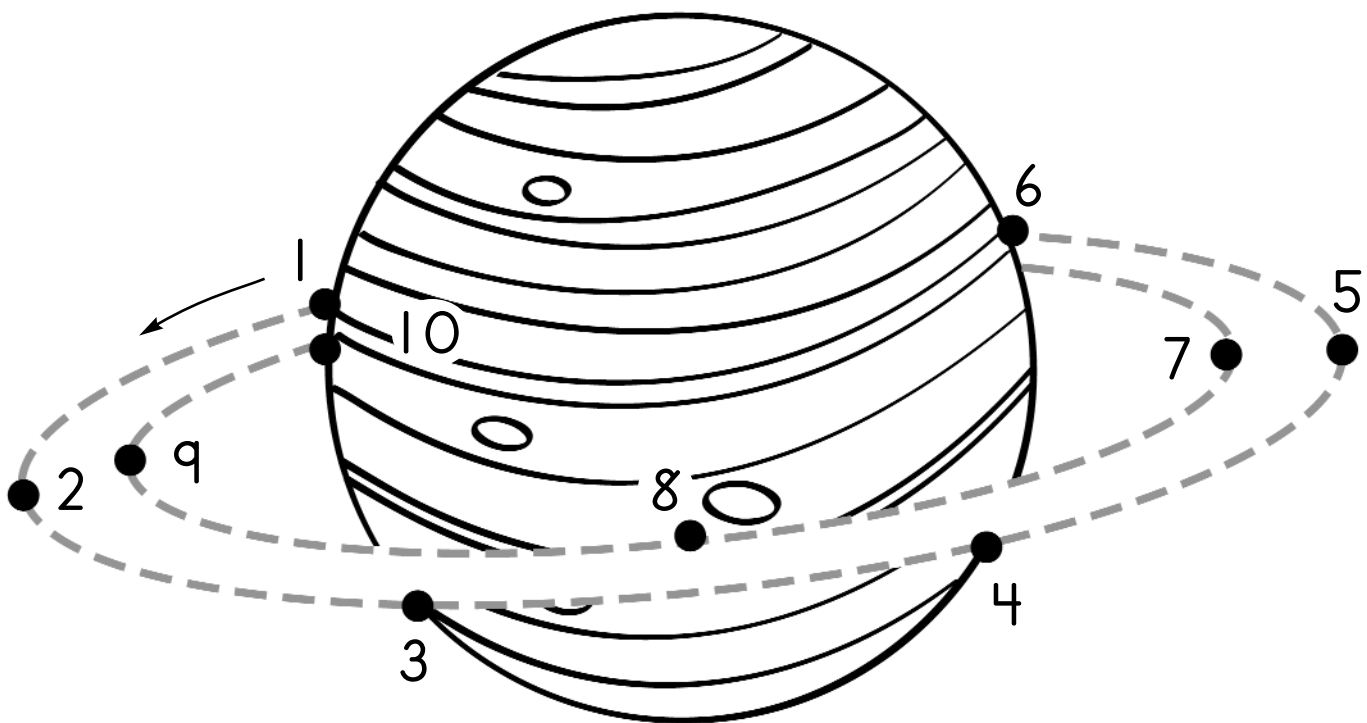

Put an X on the objects
that are not planets.

Name _____

Saturn is a planet with rings around it. Connect the dots below to complete the rings.

Then color Saturn.

Name _____

Draw an X through the objects that do not belong in space.

Name _____

Jupiter has a big storm on it.

The storm looks like a giant red spot.

Color Jupiter.

Color the spot on Jupiter red.

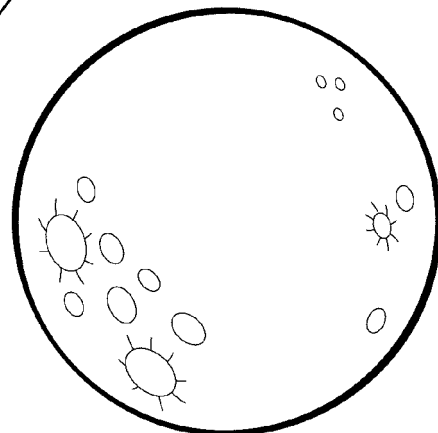

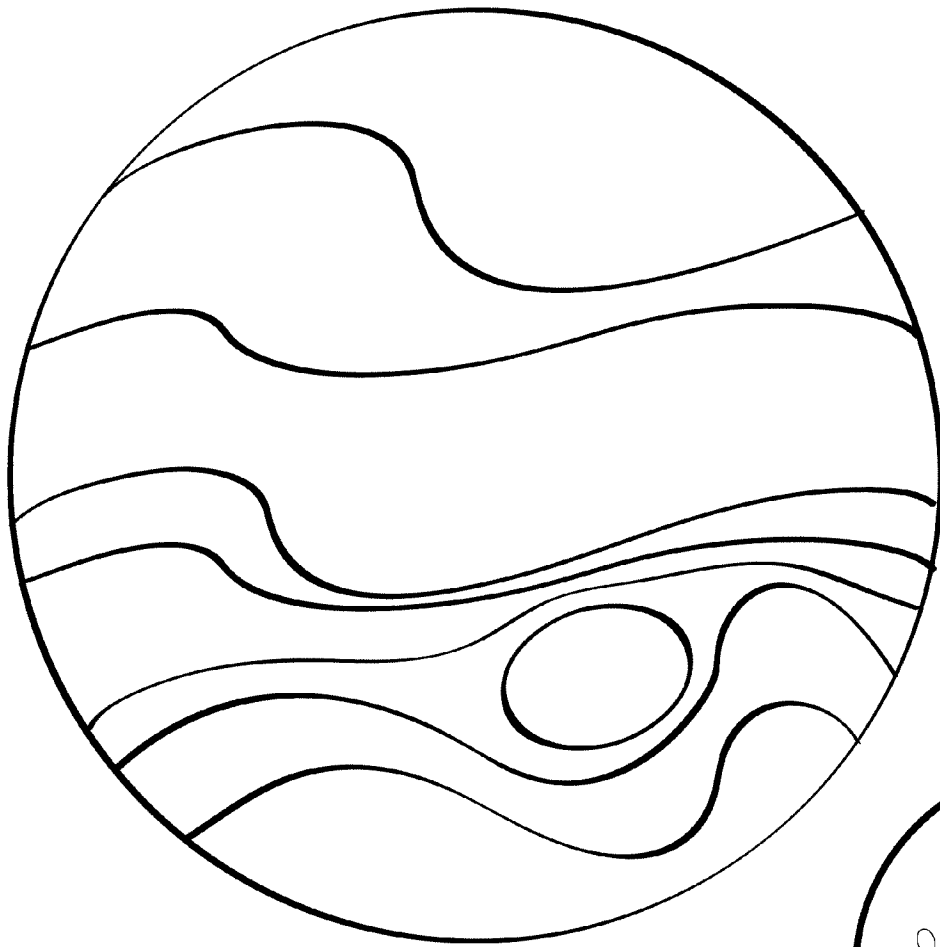

Name _____

The biggest planet is named Jupiter.

The smallest planet is named Pluto.

Color Jupiter red and yellow.

Color Pluto gray.

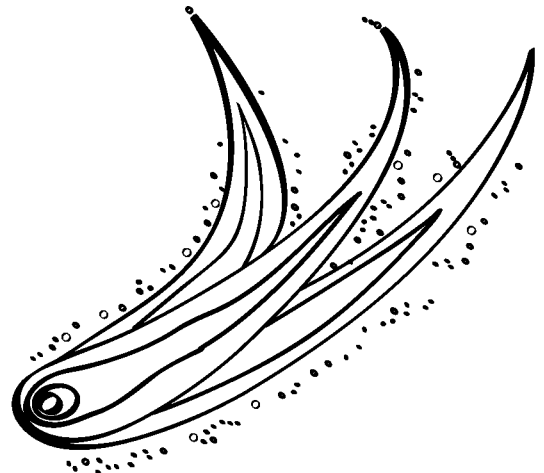

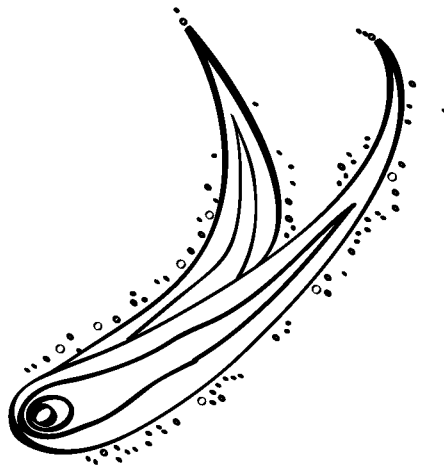

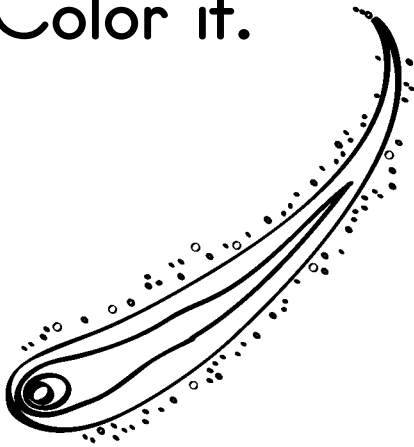

Name _____

A comet shoots through space.

Sometimes a comet has two tails.

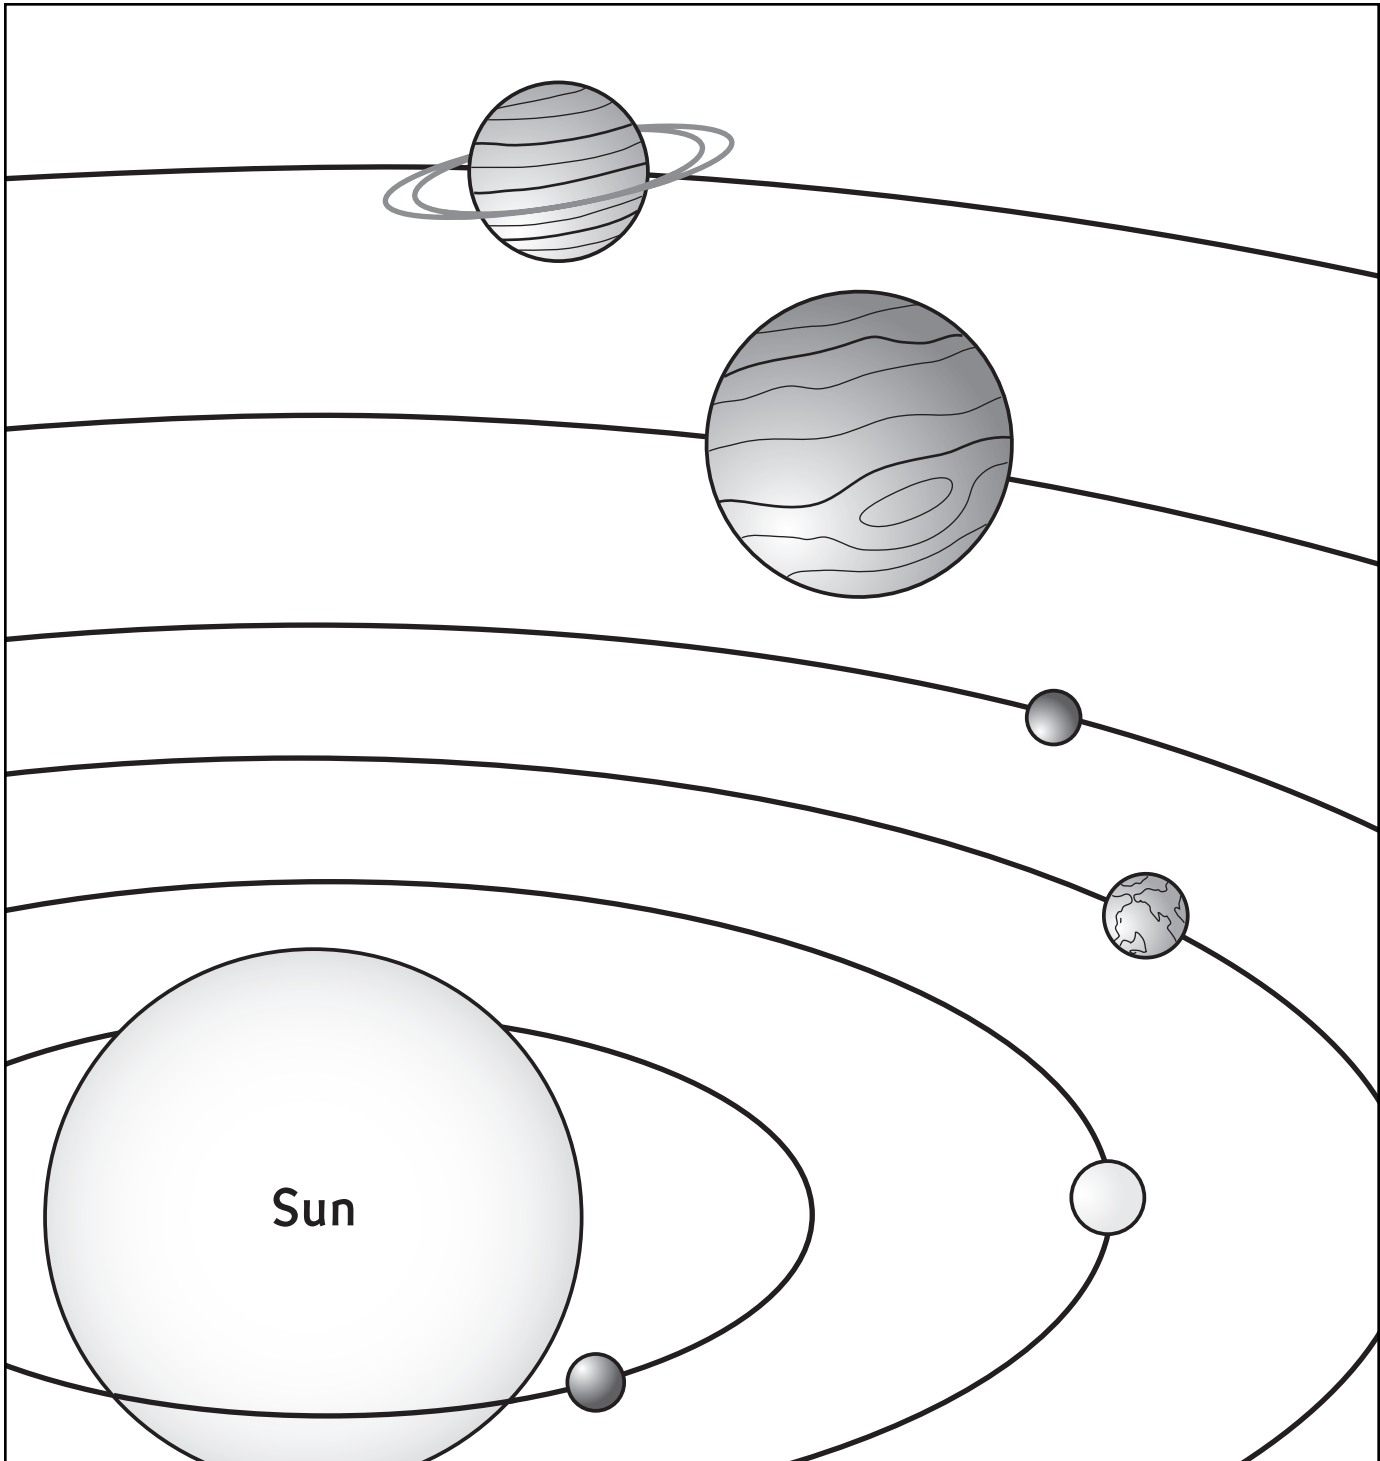

Circle the comet with two tails.

Color it.

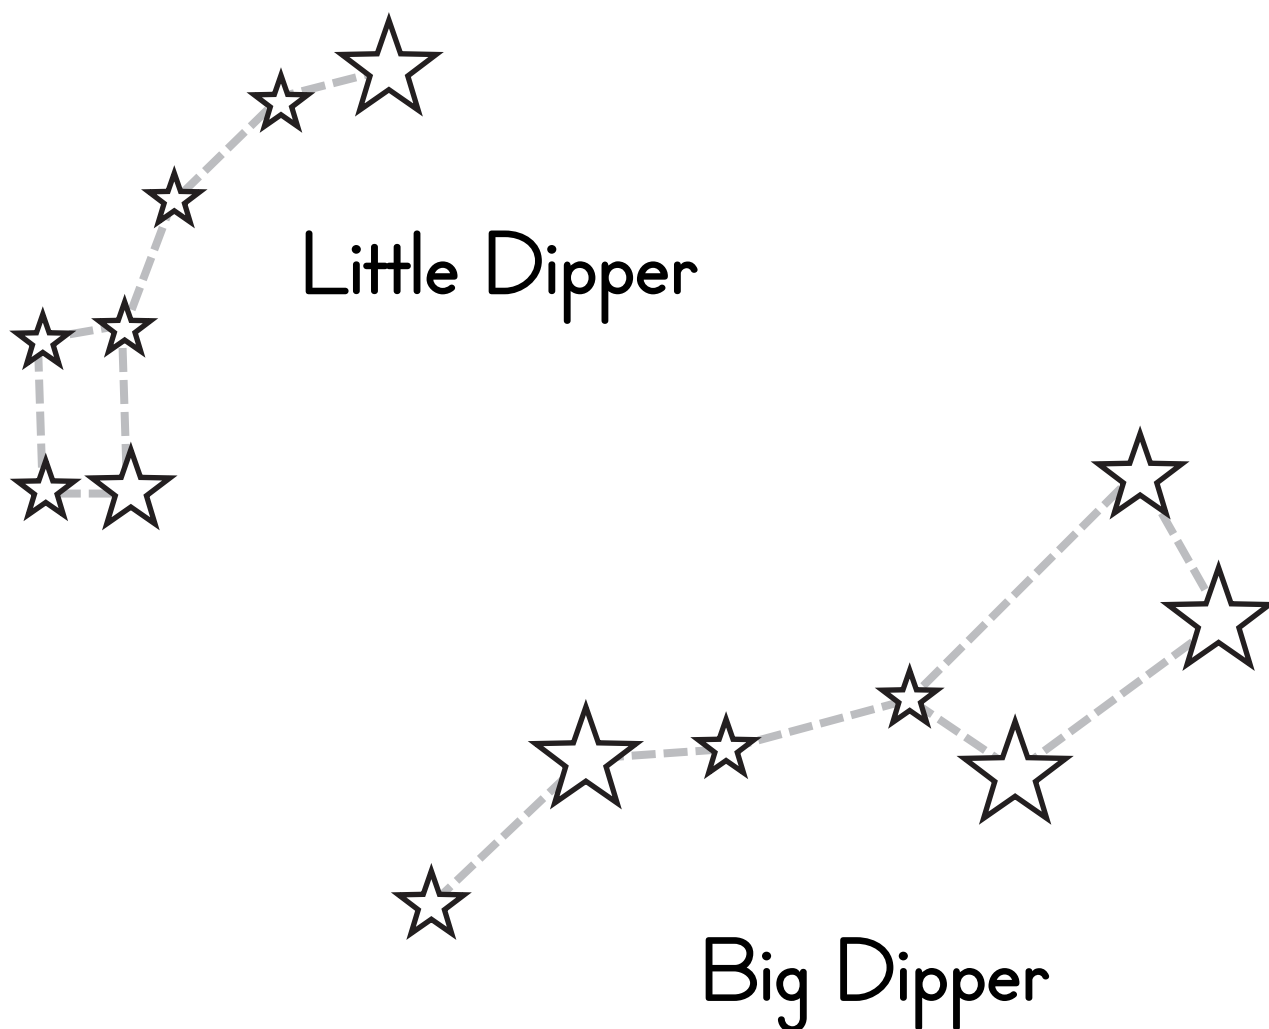

Name _____

Earth is the third planet from the Sun. Circle the Earth.

Name _____

Use a blue crayon to trace the dashed lines that show the Big Dipper.
Use a red crayon to trace the dashed lines that show the Little Dipper.

Name _____

These are rocks that are in space.

They are called asteroids.

Color the asteroids brown.

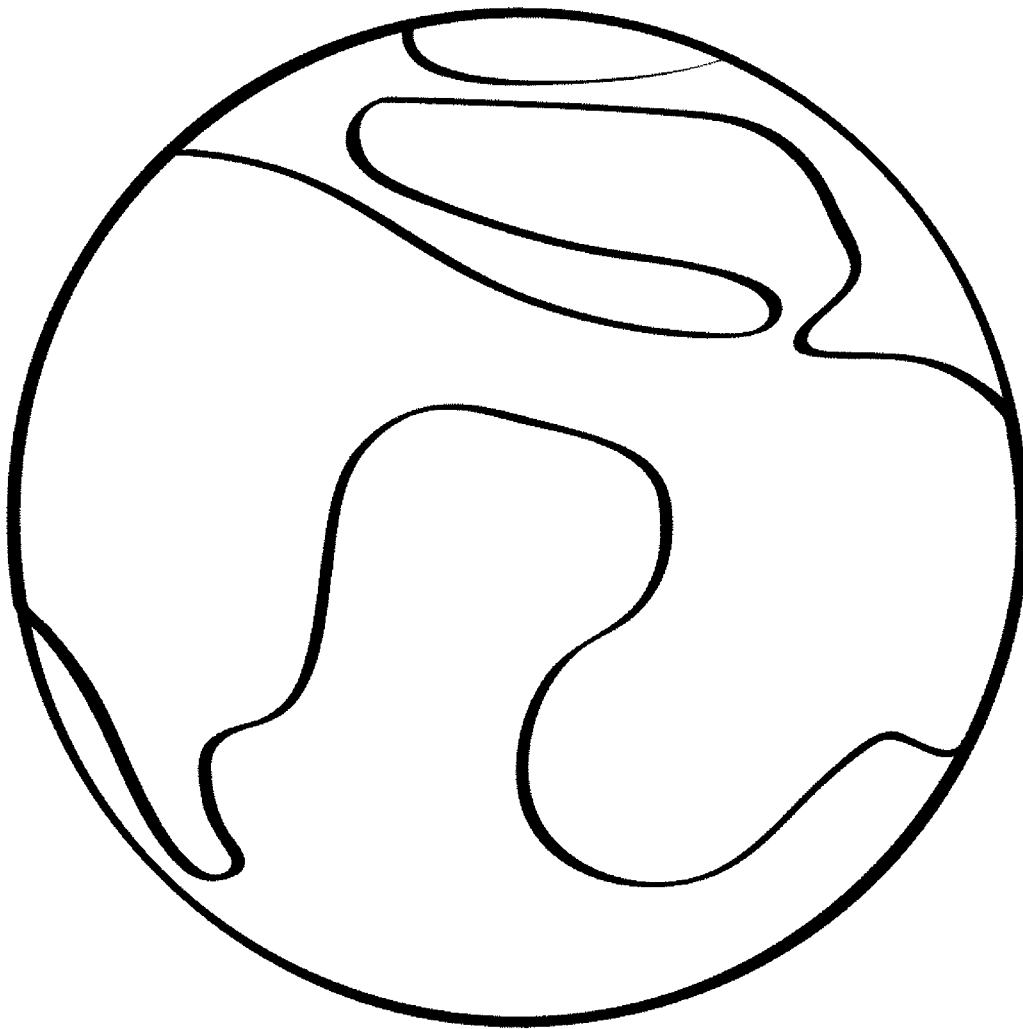

Name _____

Mars is half the size of Earth.

It has two moons. Color Mars red.

Draw two moons near Mars.

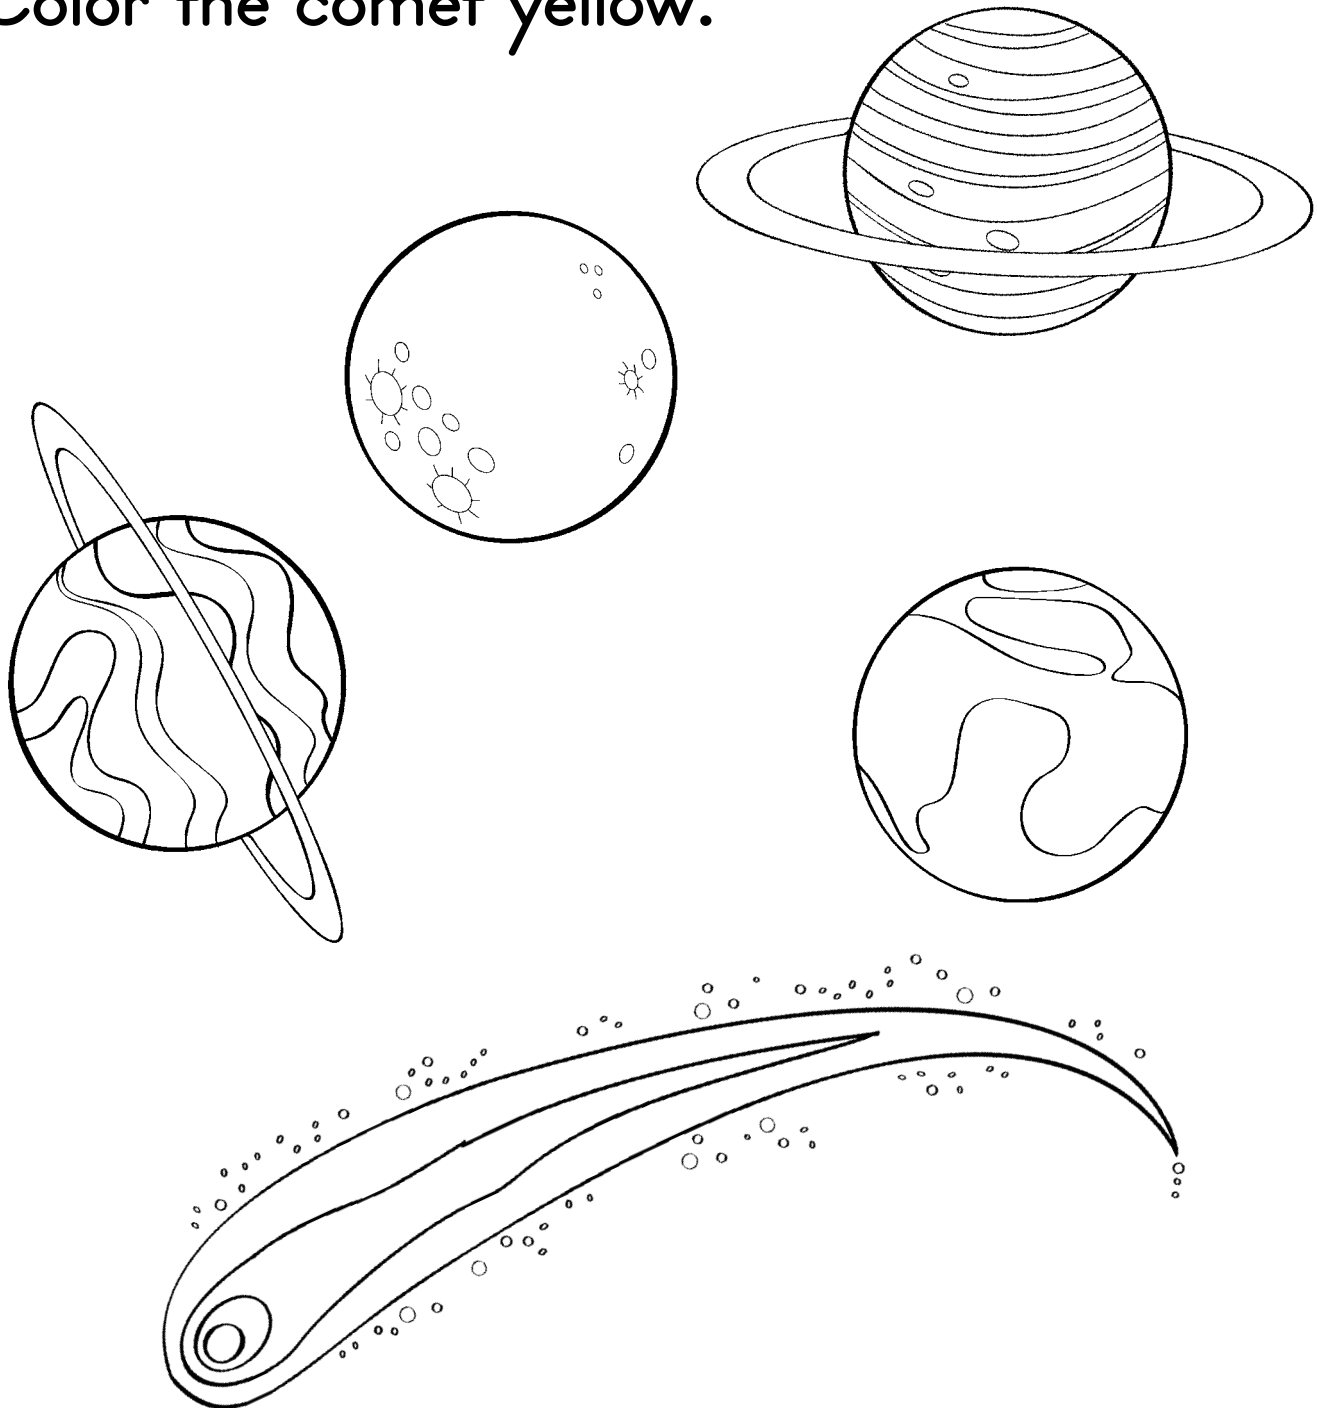

Name _____

Color the planets with rings red.

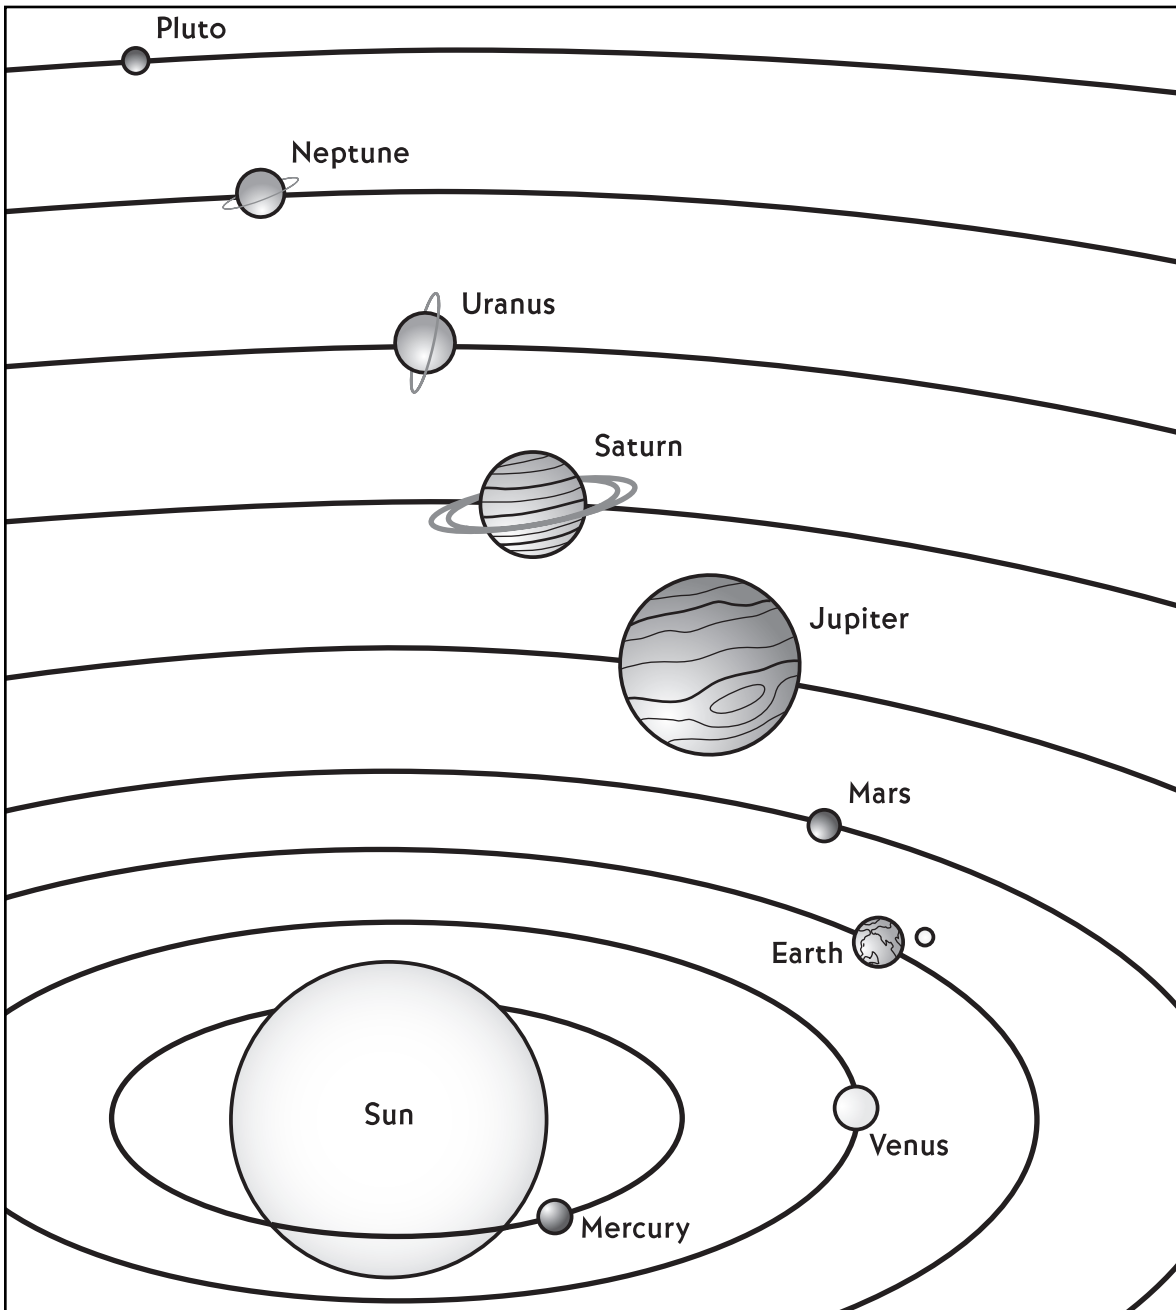

Color the planets with no rings blue.

Color the comet yellow.

Name _____

Count the number of planets that go around the Sun. Write the number.

Name _____

People who go into space are called astronauts. Help the astronaut find his ship.

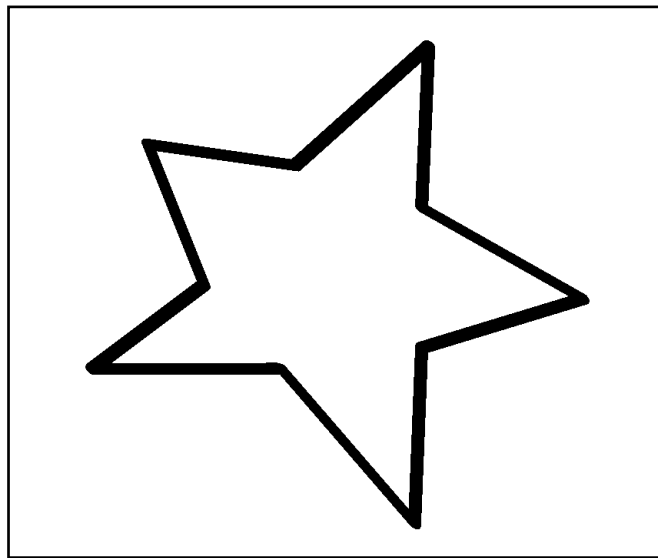

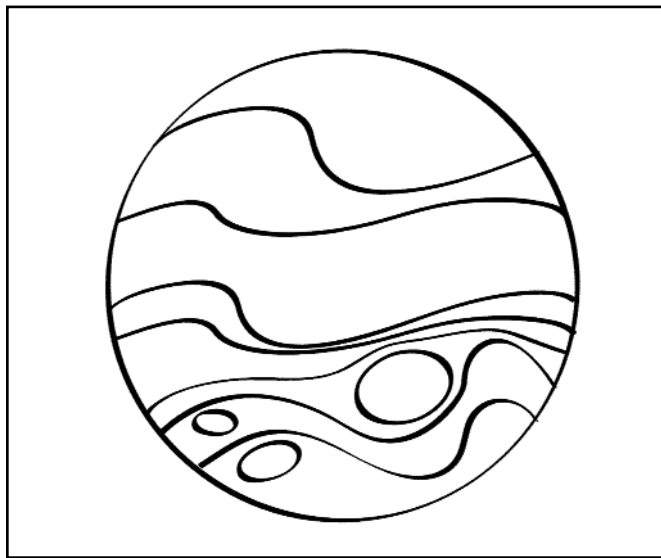

Name _____

Craters on the moon were made when objects from space crashed into it.
Draw craters on the moon.
Two have been drawn for you.
Then color the moon.

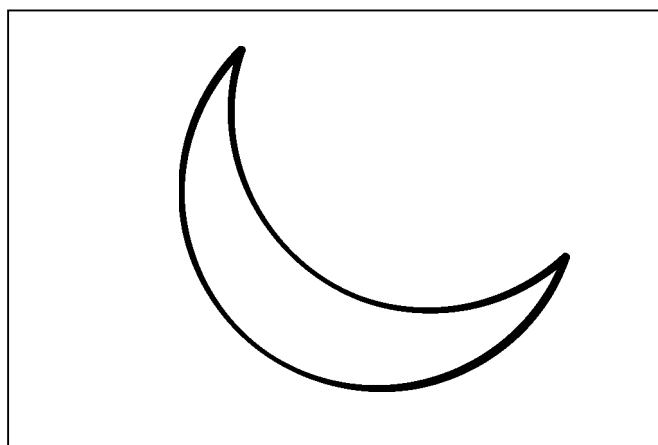

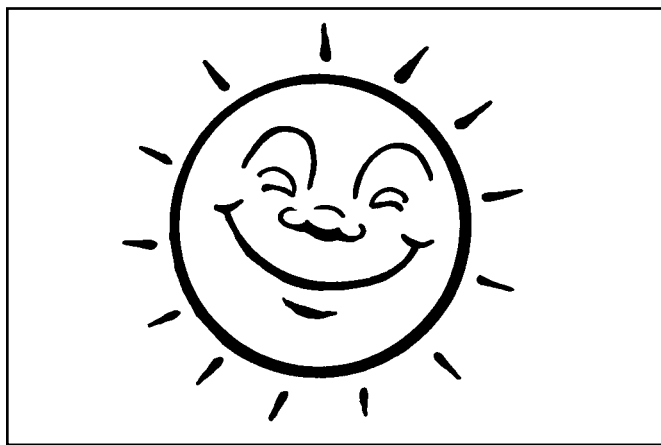

Name _____

Write the names of the space objects.

planet

planet

star

sun

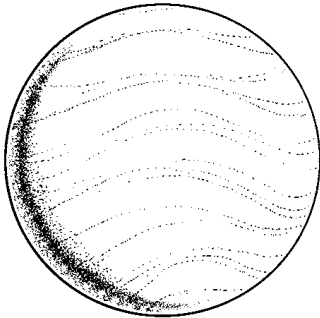

moon

Name _____

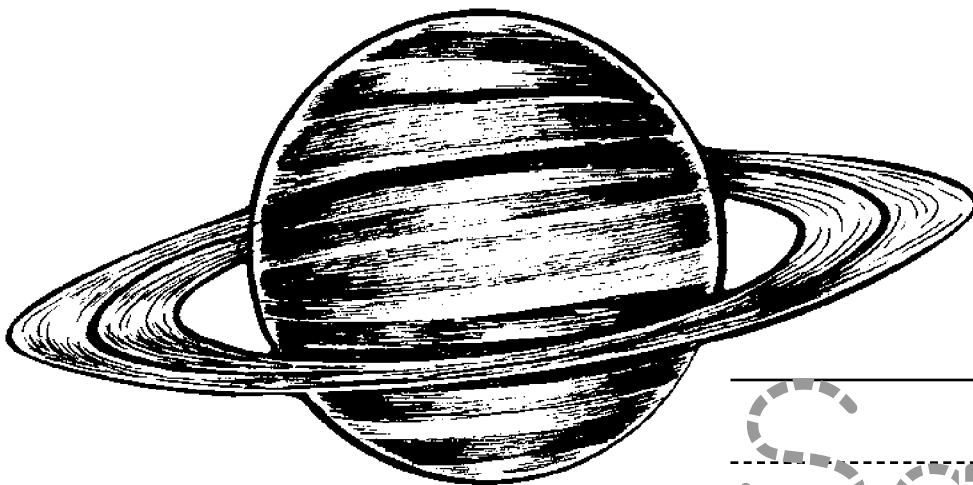

Put an X next to the planet that is bigger than Earth. Circle the planet that is smaller than Earth. Write the names.

Earth

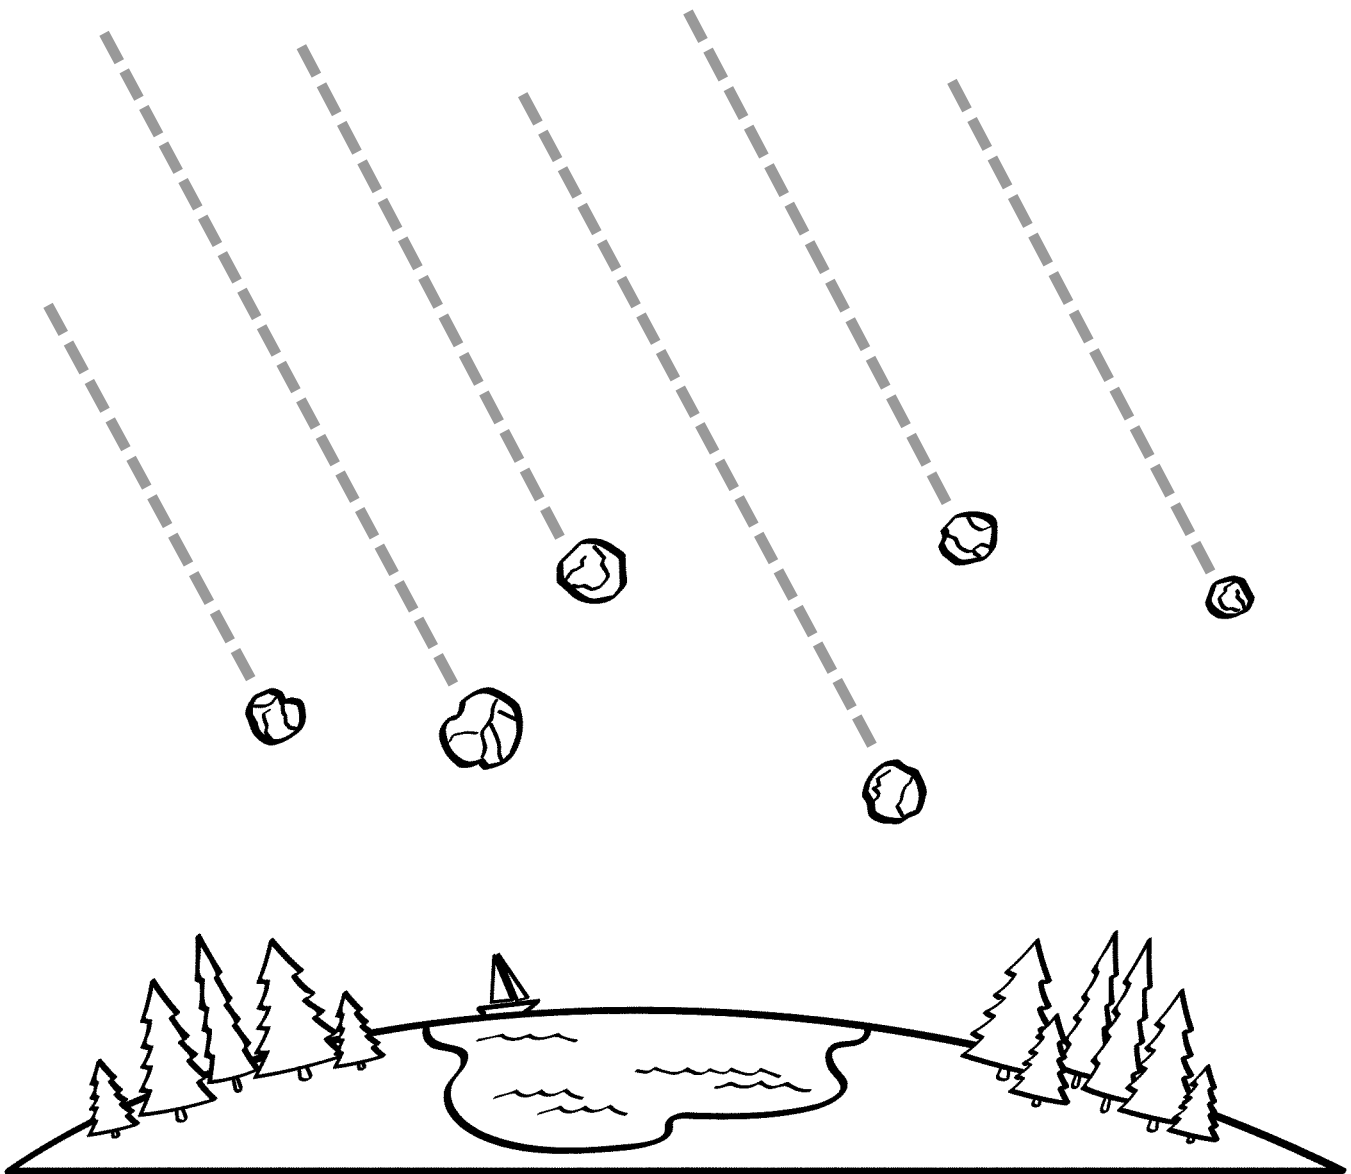

Venus

Saturn

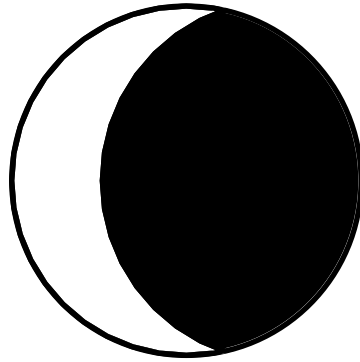

Name _____

Meteors are sometimes called shooting stars. Meteors are not stars. They are small pieces of rock or metal that burn up in space. Trace the paths of the meteors.

Name _____

Sometimes we see only a little bit of the bright side of the moon.
This is called a crescent moon.

Draw a crescent moon.

