A VERB is an action word. Run, pitch, jump, and swim are verbs.

When we ask for a GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION, we mean any sort of place: a country or city (Spain, Cleveland) or a room (bathroom, kitchen).

An EXCLAMATION or SILLY WORD is any sort of funny sound, gasp, grunt, or outcry. Wow! Ouch! Whomp! Ick! Gadzoooks! are exclamations and silly words.

When we ask for specific words like A NUMBER, A COLOR, AN ANIMAL, or A PART OF THE BODY, we mean a word that is one of those things.

When a PLURAL is asked for, be sure to pluralize the word. For example, cat pluralized is cats.

EXAMPLE:

(BEFORE)

“ _____ !” he said
EXCLAMATION

_____ , as he jumped into his
ADVERB

MAD LIBS®

MAD LIBS® is a game for people who don't like games. It can be played by one, two, three, four, or forty.

■ RIDICULOUSLY SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

In this tablet you will find stories containing blank spaces where words are left out. One player, the READER, selects one of these stories. The READER does not tell anyone what the story is about. Instead he/she asks the other players, the WRITERS, to give him/her words. These words are used to fill in the blank spaces in the story.

■ TO PLAY

The READER asks each WRITER in turn to call out a word. This word will be an adjective or a noun or whatever the space calls for. He/She then writes the words in the blank spaces in the story. After all the spaces are filled in, the result is a MAD LIB.

The READER then reads the completed MAD LIB to the other players. They will hear that they have written a story that is fantastic, screamingly funny, shocking, silly, crazy, or just plain dumb—depending upon which words each WRITER called out.

In case you've forgotten what adjectives, adverbs, nouns, and verbs are, here is a quick review:

An ADJECTIVE describes something or somebody. Lumpy, soft, ugly, messy, and short are adjectives.

An ADVERB tells how something is done. It modifies a verb and usually ends in "ly." Modestly, stupidly, greedily, and carefully are adverbs.

A NOUN is the name of a person, place, or thing. Sidewalk, umbrella, bridle, bathtub, and nose are nouns.

However, it's only a question of time before the answers to all these ADJECTIVE questions are known by PLURAL NOUN everywhere.

SPEAKING OF SPEAKING

A recent ADJECTIVE poll shows that the majority of people are terrified of public VERB ENDING IN -ING. They would rather walk across burning PLURAL NOUN or swim in NOUN-infested waters than give a speech in front of a group of PLURAL NOUN. This fear can be overcome in five easy PLURAL NOUN:
1. Organize all of your PLURAL NOUN on a piece of NOUN.
2. Remember to start your speech with a funny NOUN.
3. When speaking, look your audience straight in the eye.
4. Be simple. Never use ADJECTIVE words that are over the top of your audience's PART OF BODY.
5. Always keep a pitcher of Liquid next to you in case your audience's PART OF BODY goes dry.
